

Instructor: Jim Kemp
Email: jkemp@sd40.bc.ca
Phone: 604-517-6191

Description:

BC First Nations Studies 12 is a course that addresses the history of First Nations people in B.C. from prior to European contact up to the present day.

There are four modules in BC First Nations Studies 12:

- Module 1 - Perspective and Place
- Module 2 - Contact, Resistance and Leadership
- Module 3 - Creativity and Culture
- Module 4 – Contemporary Issues

Required resources

Access to a computer and Internet access is required as there are various readings, videos, animations, simulations and links in the course. There is also a textbook that is available FREE online in the course.

The prescribed learning outcomes are listed in the course, and can also be found at the Ministry of Education's website: (<http://www.bced.gov.bc.ca/irp/plo.php>).

Assessment Strategies / Performance Standards

There are 4 module tests (worth 10% each for a total of 40%), 4 module quizzes (worth 5% each for a total of 20%) and 8 assignments (two in each module, worth 5% each for a total of 40%) in this course. The tests and quizzes are written online and you will hand in your assignments electronically via a drop box in the course. Each assignment will also include specific criteria for how you will be marked. There is NO midterm and NO final exam. Students may only submit ONE assignment per day.

Performance standards for some courses can be found by visiting the Ministry of Education's website: (https://www.bced.gov.bc.ca/perf_stands/).

How long will this course take?

This is a 4-credit course and you should expect to spend 100 – 120 hours to complete it.

Need help?

You may get help in person, by phone and online in the course by email.